

Contents

Acknowledgements	9
Introduction: British Politics and the Future of Conservatism	11
PART ONE:
INTERNATIONALISM OR THE NATION STATE
Phillip Blond The Universal and the Particular Conservatism, Nationalism and Post-Liberalism	23
Cornelis J. Schilt Post-Liberal Conservatism and the Nation State	39
PART TWO:
TRADITIONS OF CONSERVATISM, LIBERALISM AND POST-LIBERALISM
Christopher Fear The Post-Liberal Climate and the Tory Faith	61
Kevin Hickson Liberalism, Conservatism and the British Nation State	77
Matt Beech God, Marxism and the Culture War: Recovering Liberalism	93
Daniel Pitt Oikophilia and the Poetics of Conservative Environmentalism	109
David Jeffery What Evidence for a Post-Liberal Turn in the British Conservative Party?	131
Henry George Disability and Right-Post-Liberalism: The Common Ground of the Common Good	155
Eric Kaufmann Toward a Liberal Post-Liberalism	177
Andrew Roberts Conservative Traditions: Remarks by Andrew Roberts	205

PART THREE:

CHRISTIANITY, ANGLOPHILIA AND CONSERVATISM

Imogen Sinclair

The Order of the Covenant: Uses of Freud after Faith

213

Ferenc Hörcher

Central European Anglophilia: Personal and Historical Recollections

231

Ishaan Jajodia

The Demise of Fusionism and the Rise of American Post-Liberalism

255

Conclusion: A Personal Perspective on the Future of British Conservatism

279

Notes on Contributors

287