

Authors of the volume

Vivien Kalas is Research Fellow at the Europe Strategy Research Institute of Ludovika University of Public Service. She graduated from the Faculty of Law of Eötvös Loránd University, Hungary and gained an MSc in Political Science in 2021. Since September 2021 she has been a PhD student at the Doctoral School of Political Science of ELTE. Starting with 2022 she is lecturer at the Institute of International Studies and Political Science of the Budapest Metropolitan University. She started working at the Europe Strategy Research Institute in January 2020. Her fields of research include decision-making in the European Council, democracy in the European Union, rule of law standards, the EU's education policy and European identity.

Réka Zsuzsánna Máthé, PhD is Research Fellow at the Europe Strategy Research Institute of Ludovika University of Public Service (EUSTRAT) in Hungary, Senior Researcher at Mathias Corvinus Collegium and Assistant Professor at Sapientia Hungarian University of Transylvania in Romania. She obtained her doctorate degree from Ludovika University of Public Service (Hungary), graduating with the distinction summa cum laude. In the course of her doctoral studies she received a scholarship at Charles University in Prague. During her doctoral studies, she earned an MA scholarship and studied at the College of Europe, Bruges, where she graduated with a degree in European Political Science and Public Administration. Prior to that, she obtained an MA degree in public management with a specialisation in the management of public institutions in Cluj, Romania, jointly awarded by Michigan State University and Babeş-Bolyai University. She completed her higher education in Romanian, German, English and French.

Áron James Miszlivetz holds an MA degree in EU International Relations and Diplomacy from the College of Europe. In 2021, he spent six months as a seconded national expert at the European Commission, where he worked on the EU's neighbourhood and enlargement policy. Since March 2020, he is Visiting Researcher at the Europe Strategy Research Institute of Ludovika University of Public Service where he has published extensively on the EU's security and defence policy, as well as the EU's enlargement policy and the Western Balkans. From 2022 to 2023, he was policy director of Blue Door Consulting. Currently he is working on multilateral diplomacy and human rights as Head of Department for International Organisations at the Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Trade, Hungary.

Authors of the volume

Viktória Lilla Pató is Research Fellow of the Europe Strategy Research Institute of Ludovika University of Public Service, Hungary. Graduated in public administration studies (BA) and international public service relations (MA), she is doing research in science policy at the Doctoral School of Public Administration Sciences at Ludovika University of Public Service. During her university studies, she gained several international – by participating in Erasmus student mobility and training courses – and professional experience at the Constitutional Court of Hungary, the National Assembly, the Embassy of Hungary in Rome, the Digital Success Program, the Dean's Office at Ludovika University of Public Service and the Ministry for Regional Development and EU Funds. She was also involved in public activity by advocating the interest of PhD candidates at the Association of Hungarian PhD and DLA Candidates and the Doctorates' Council of Ludovika University of Public Service. From 2023 she is leading expert at the Hungarian Development Promotion Office.

Bernadett Petri is researcher at the Europe Strategy Research Institute of Ludovika University of Public Service, from February 2023 she is also the Executive Director of the Hungarian Development Promotion Office (MFOI), which operates as a background institution of the Prime Minister's Office, and as of March 2023 she is researcher of the XXI. Század Institute. She holds a law degree from Pázmány Péter Catholic University, Hungary, obtained the Cambridge Diploma in English and European Union law and an MA degree in economics at Corvinus University of Budapest. After taking the bar exam she continued working in Budapest and later in Brussels, in the fields of economic law, intellectual property law, international law and company law. In 2022, she earned a BSc degree in psychology at the University of Pécs. She joined the EU institutions, first working at the European Parliament. She was a Professional Adviser in the European Parliament in the field of law, education, including copyright and other legislation related to the digital single market. Subsequently she was a member of cabinet of the European Commissioner for Education, Culture, Youth and Sport, Tibor Navracsics.

Authors of the volume

Balázs Tárnok, PhD is Managing Director at the Europe Strategy Research Institute of Ludovika University of Public Service. He is also Deputy Director of the Training Program on National Minorities at the Károli Interdisciplinary Academy at the Károli Gáspár University of the Reformed Church of Hungary, and Adviser on Minority Rights at the Institute for the Protection of Minority Rights, Budapest. He received his law degree (JD), LL.M and PhD at the Pázmány Péter Catholic University Faculty of Law and Political Sciences, Budapest. In 2021, he was the Hungary Foundation's Visiting Research Fellow at the University of Notre Dame, USA. In 2022, he received the Lőrincz Csaba Award presented by the Pro Minoritate Foundation to acknowledge his activities in the field of foreign and national minority policy. His research focuses on the law and policies of the EU, human rights and minority rights, transatlantic relations and regional cooperation in Central Europe.

Tímea Zsivity is researcher at the Europe Strategy Research Institute of Ludovika University of Public Service. She holds a degree in sociology from the University of Novi Sad. She currently engaged in doctoral studies at the Faculty of Military Sciences and Officer Training. Since 2012, she has contributed as both a member and researcher at the Scientific Association for Hungarology Research, headquartered in Subotica. In 2013, she engaged in research projects at the Hungarian Institute of International Affairs and the Institute for Minority Studies of the Hungarian Academy of Sciences. Her research focuses on analysing the socio-economic and political dynamics of the Western Balkans and the respective national minorities residing in the region.